IT Manager

The IT Manager will supervise the implementation and maintenance of the Company's digital needs.

Main tasks

- Management of IT technologies and computer systems
- Planning, organizing, controlling and evaluating IT systems
- IT staff management, training and teaching employees and performance evaluation
- Design, development, implementation and coordination of systems, policies and procedures
- Ensure data security, network access and backup systems
- Identify problem areas and implement strategic solutions in time
- Development of project solutions and management of them
- Audit the system and evaluate its results
- Preserve assets, IT security and control structures
- Manage the annual budget and ensure effectiveness.

What we're looking for

- Master's degree in Electrical Engineering or Informatics
- Proven work experience as an IT manager
- IT certificates (knowledge of INFORMATION security, business and INFORMATION processes, computer communications and administration, telecommunications and WAN systems)
- Expertise in data centre and data management
- Experience in managing and developing IT projects
- Practical experience with computer networks, network administration and network installation
- Ability to manage personnel and work in a team
- active knowledge of English

Specific Knowledge

- Knowledge in the field of design, creation and maintenance of applications
- Knowledge of techniques, tools, services and processes for designing, creating and maintaining IT infrastructure services that meet business requirements
- CISCO CCNA
- Knowledge in the field of IT cyber security and compliance
- Knowledge of ITGC
- Knowledge of how to turn business requirements into technical requirements/IT solutions
- Ability to manage IT systems, with a focus on the user's perspective on the contribution of IT to the business

- Knowledge of project management, programs, IT risks
- Knowledge of the principles, techniques and processes for identifying, designing and maintaining a harmonized and safe environment
- Digital & Cloud knowledge

What you'll gain

- Experience in a management position with a lot of responsibility
- Opportunity to learn new skills in a demanding range of tasks
- Personal capabilities development
- Mentoring and coaching program
- ArcelorMittal University
- Unlimited access to ArcelorMittal learning platform
- A talent program to bring you to the next level